Mapping It Out

Research the countries that fought in WWI and identify those who fought on the side of the Triple Entente and those who fought with the Triple Alliance.

1. On the map of 1914 Europe below, mark the countries with:
 - a) 'E', for members of the Triple Entente
 - b) 'A', for members of the Triple Alliance
 - c) 'e', for countries that supported the Triple Entente
 - d) 'a', for countries that supported the Triple Alliance
 - e) 'N', for countries that remained neutral

2. What does the completed map show you about the relative strengths of the two sides involved in WWI?

3. Although the countries in the Triple Entente and the Triple Alliance were located in Europe, many other countries around the world were involved in WWI. Taking this into account, would you change your answer to question 2? Why or why not?
