

Literary Contexts: American Literature

A Streetcar Named Desire in Context

| Thinking About Themes

Select a theme from A Streetcar Named Desire and create a visual representation of that theme by following the instructions below.

- Clearly identify your chosen theme by writing it concisely in the center of the page.
- Draw or attach three images from the play that link to the theme.
- Write three quotes from the play that link to the theme.
- Write 3–5 words or phrases that link to the theme.
- Include a summary about how Williams presents the theme.
- Use color effectively to represent the theme.

This activity can be completed in the space provided here or using a suitable computer or web-based program, like thinglink.com.