

Study Skills

Locked In The Vault: Memory Tips & Tricks Comprehension Questions

1. Why do you think Buggy has failed to remember the plan for the bank robbery?

2. A graphic organiser will help you to understand new information you are learning, making it harder to forget.

True

False

3. List three mnemonic devices Ray suggests to Black Cat and Buggy.

4. Ray Is The Best At Teaching Study Skills helps Buggy to remember that the code for the safe is RITBATSS. This is a mnemonic device called:

- a) an acrostic.
- b) an acronym.
- c) a rhyme.

5. What can Buggy use to remind him to buy laxatives for the bank guards' coffee?

6. Revising new information _____ after you've learned it the first time will assist you in remembering it later.

7. Fill in the table to see which mnemonic devices you already know and use:

Example	Mnemonic device	To help you remember...
Every Good Boy Deserves Fruit		The musical notes on lines of the treble staff
BODMAS

Study Skills

Locked In The Vault: Memory Tips & Tricks Comprehension Questions

Example	Mnemonic device	To help you remember...
30 days has September, April, June and November All the rest have 31 Except for February all alone Which has but 28 days clear And 29 in each leap year
	Acrostic	Directions on a compass
		How to spell words like 'piece', 'niece', 'chief' or 'thief', as well as 'perceive', 'receive', 'deceit' or 'receipt'
My Very Excellent Mother Just Served Us Nine Pizzas	Acrostic
		The order of steps to take in a medical emergency

